Back To Basics

A MODERN ANDREW SISTERS EXPERIENCE

The 1940's was a period of timeless music and history, The Andrew Sisters were the queens of this era and Big Band Swing reigned supreme.

Three sassy lasses in The Back to Basics show effortlessly recreate this era with fabulous voices, songs, dance, costumes and character. The mood is set instantly and 'the troops' forget their world for a short time and go on a journey that takes them back into an age that seems to be as loved today as it was decades ago. Swing is a timeless vintage and the Back to Basics show will have any audience captivated.

Back To Basics show can be utilised to cater for any function and budget.

It can be done to track. Or is fully charted for a band for the whole shebang! The show can also be collaborated with the hit dance act 'Those Tap Guys' for a performance that your audience will walk away from thinking they've just been to a Broadway production!
