Ingrid James

Australian jazz singer Ingrid James has a voice that's been described as "chocolate: rich, dark and smooth".

Ingrid James is one of Queensland's leading Jazz vocalists who has performed throughout Australia and overseas. Ingrid's appearances range from soloist performances with the Queensland Orchestra in Cole Porter and Gershwin tributes with Maestro Tommy Tycho as well as Spirit of Christmas, broadcasts nationally on ABC TV to crowning as Queen of the Noosa Jazz Festiva.

In between Ingrid James has performed at venues as varied as The Blue Note in Monte Carlo, the 606 Club and Spice of Life in London and the City of Music in Marseilles. Described as a "fearless and gifted Jazz singer" by the Sydney Morning Herald, a candidate for the Best 10 list by Cadence Magazine reviewer in New York and a singer who has "a special affinity for Brazilian music (who) brings out the full beauty of the lyrics" by critic Joao da Penha of Brazil, reviewers acknowledge the heartfelt warmth and intimate style that characterizes her performances.

Regularly recording award winning albums, Ingrid performs principally at corporate events while still finding the time to appear at popular venues in The Treasury, Press Club and the Brisbane Jazz Club, Gold Coast City Jazz Club....

Ingrid James is suitable for all corporate events including weddings, cocktail functions and Gala Dinners.
