The Mustard Trio

Mustard are a three piece covers music trio featuring Nik, Jon and Sam.

The Mustard trio met in 2008 when they worked together on an extraordinary piece of musical theatre ('Still Standing' by Margery Ford)

The great success of the show proved that an exceptional musical bond had developed throughout its season and the boys weren't satisfied to stop there, so in the wake of the show formed the new trio, Mustard.

However the Mustard boys wanted to do something a little more than just another regular covers band, they wanted to create an acoustic instrument and vocal ensemble that has the diversity and charisma to fit in any venue, any time.

The Mustard Trio are perfect for all function types including private parties, weddings, pubs / clubs and cocktail parties.
