Scat

SCAT are the ideal entertainment solution for your next function or event. New age artists like Michael Buble and Jamie Callum have brought jazz to the masses and now you can have professional performers SCAT bring jazz to your special occasion. Scat's performance will add value to your event and give you and your guests a night to remember.

These guys in Scat are true entertainers who are able to draw your guests or audience into the fun, feeling and festivity of music and live jazz, enriching the atmosphere of your special event. SCAT are confident working with small or large crowds from young to old in any setting.

With successes at concerts, appeal dinners, album launches and their own shows, SCAT are well worth the investment if you are looking for an act to remember. SCAT has often been told, "you guys made the night!"

The members of SCAT are all professional musicians in their own right with all being former students at the Queensland Conservatorium of Music QCM and have significant experience in the Brisbane jazz and corporate entertainment scene. Members of SCAT have toured internationally and been involved in acts like the Ten Tenors. SCAT understands the needs of a client wanting to host a no fuss, smooth running, memorable event. aSCAT will exceed your expectations as a professional outfit.

Scat are suitable for all functions including Jazz and Arts Festivals, Black-tie Functions, Conference Entertainment, Corporate Awards Nights, Café, Church Special Services, Youth Events, University Balls, Café & Club Entertainment, Community Festivals, Variety Nights, Album Launches, Gospel Festivals and Concerts Music Workshops In Store Appearances.
